Dear Potential Advertiser:

The Illinois Association for Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Dance would like to invite you to advertise in its JOURNAL. We have a circulation of over 4,000 copies semi-annually. Our members are teaching in the elementary, and secondary schools, college and universities, as well as other agencies. Many of our subscribers are Physical Education Department Chairs, Athletic Directors, Coaches, Park Recreation Personnel, and Health Educators whose responsibility it is to purchase equipment and books. In addition, the JOURNAL is sent to many libraries and professionals in other states. The Illinois Association is one of the largest state AHPERDs.

In many instances this publication is the only journal or source to keep abreast of new equipment, books and other materials. Many of our members find it difficult to regularly attend our conventions to review what you have to offer. We think the Illinois JOURNAL could be an appropriate way for you to inform interested people of your products.

Our advertising rates are listed in Addendum #1 of the Advertising contract. I hope you will find them attractive and a good value for marketing your company's special new product.

Should you be interested in advertising, please contact me:

Thank you for considering an advertisement in the Illinois JOURNAL.

Sincerely,

Kim Wheeler
